

LCNA Trials and Training Attendance Exemption Request Form.

The purpose of this form is to request an exemption from attending scheduled netball trials and/or training session due to exceptional circumstances. Extenuating circumstances are considered to be unforeseen, unavoidable, or exceptional situations that prevent a player from attending trials or training despite making every reasonable effort to do so.

LCNA recognises that situations may arise that prevent a player from attending. Each request will be considered individually and on its merits. Submission of this form does not guarantee that an exemption will be approved or that a player will be selected in a team.

Players are encouraged to submit this request as soon as they become aware of the circumstances preventing their attendance.

Approval of an exemption does not guarantee team selection; Team selection will continue to be based on LCNA selection policy. Player performance, available information, and the best interests of LCNA.

To ensure fairness and consistency, LCNA considers the following as extenuating circumstances.

Medical Reasons –

- Illness or Injury preventing participation.
- Hospitalisation or surgery
- Medical appointments that cannot reasonably be rescheduled
- Recovery from an injury supported by a medical certificate.

Family Circumstances

- Significant injury or illness of an immediate family member
- Bereavement or attendance at a funeral
- Family emergency requiring the player's presence.
- Significant unforeseen family commitments

Education

- School camps/excursions
- Examinations or assessments tasks that cannot be rescheduled.
- School Representatives commitments

Representative Sport

- Selection in a state national or elite sporting program
- Attendance at an official development camp or tournament
- Participation in another sport where the commitment was accepted before LCNA trial dates were announced.

Employment

- Essential work commitments where leave cannot reasonably be obtained.
- Emergence call outs for essential workers

Religious or Cultural Obligations

- Significant religious observances
- Cultural ceremonies or community obligations

Travel

- Pre booked family travel arrangements before trial dates where published
- Travel delays due to circumstances beyond the player's control.

Other Exceptional Circumstances

The Selection committee may consider other circumstances that are outside the players control and supported by appropriate evidence.

Circumstances that would generally not be considered extenuating.

Examples are.

- Choosing to attend another social event
- Forgetting trial dates
- Poor time management
- Holidays booked after trial/carnival dates were announced.
- Wanting to attend another sporting activity of a lower priority with prior approval
- Lack of transport where alternative arrangements could reasonably been made.
- Choosing not to attend with notifying the Association

Evidence Required

Where appropriate LCNA may request supporting documentation, such as

- Medical Certificate
- Letter from a school
- Representative sporting schedule or selection letter
- Employer confirmation
- Travel Itinerary
- Other documents support request.
